

Towards a Clearer BUC Constitution

The GC Model Union Conference Constitution, which is in GC Working Policy, has the following preamble:

D 10 05 Union Conference Constitution and Bylaws—This model constitution shall be followed by all union conferences. Those sections of the model bylaws that appear in bold print are essential to the unity of the Church worldwide, and shall be included in the bylaws as adopted by each union conference. Other sections of the model bylaws may be modified as set out in Bylaw Article XII, provided they continue to be in full harmony with the provisions of this model. Amendments to the Union Conference Model Constitution and Bylaws shall be made by action of the Executive Committee of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists at any Annual Council of that Committee.

Constitution Article I—Name The name of this organization shall be the _____ Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, hereinafter referred to as the union or union conference. Constitution Article III—Relationships The _____ Union Conference is a member unit of the global Seventh-day Adventist Church and is located in the territory of the _____ Division of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. The purposes, policies, and procedures of this union conference shall be in harmony with the working policies and procedures enacted by the executive committee of the _____ Division or the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. This union conference shall pursue the mission of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in harmony with the Fundamental Beliefs, programs, initiatives, and actions adopted and approved by the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists at its sessions.	Article 1 – Name & Relationship The name of this organisation shall be known as the British Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, hereinafter referred to as the union or union “this Union Conference”. The _____ This Union Conference is a member unit of the global Seventh-day Adventist Church and is located in the territory of the Trans-European Division of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists (“Trans-European Division”). The purposes, policies, and procedures of this Union Conference shall be in harmony with the working policies and procedures enacted by the executive committee of the Trans-European Division or the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists (“General Conference”). In fulfilment of the Purpose, this Union Conference shall pursue the mission of the Seventh-day Adventist denomination (“the Church”) in harmony with the Fundamental Beliefs, programs, initiatives, and actions adopted and approved by the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists at its sessions.	2016 Constitution Article 1 The GC Model constitution is divided into a constitution section and a bylaws section. As bylaws are rarely used in UK charity constitutions we have combined them into one complete constitution. Article 1 is a combination of Constitution Article I and Constitution Article III in the model constitution.
Constitution Article IV—Geographic Territory The territory of this union conference shall consist of _____. Bylaw Article I—Principal Office The principal office for the transaction of the business of the _____ Union Conference is fixed and located at _____, _____. In an emergency, the executive committee may change the location of the principal office on a temporary basis.	Article 2 – Territory & Principal Office The territory of this Union Conference shall consist of England, Wales, Scotland, Northern Ireland, Republic of Ireland, and all adjacent British Islands (“the Territory”). The principal office for the transaction of the business of the this Union Conference is fixed and located at Stanborough Park, St Albans Road, Watford WD25 9JZ. In an emergency, the executive committee of this Union Conference (“Executive Committee”) may change the location of the principal office on a temporary basis.	2016 Constitution Article 2 Article 2 is a combination of Constitution Article IV and Bylaw Article I in the model constitution. The emergency clause does not exist in the model Conference constitution – probably an oversight.
Constitution Article II—Purpose The purpose of this union conference is to call all people within its territory to become disciples of Jesus Christ, to proclaim the everlasting gospel embraced by the three angels’ messages (Revelation 14:6-12), and to prepare them for Christ’s soon return.	Article 3 – Purpose (a) The purpose of this Union Conference, (“the Purpose”), is to proclaim and teach the everlasting gospel of Jesus Christ (as embraced by the three angels’ messages (Revelation 14:6-12)), by but not limited to, calling all people within the Territory to become disciples of Jesus Christ and preparing them for Christ’s soon return. (b) In furtherance of the Purpose but not further or otherwise this Union Conference shall have the following powers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) to employ and remunerate such ministers, officers, teachers and other employees and to engage such volunteers as may be necessary; (ii) to provide or assist in the provision of housing accommodation for such employees and volunteers to enable them to carry out their duties, and in cases of need for retired employees and their families; (iii) to provide or assist (by means of grants, loans or otherwise) in the provision or improvement of churches and other buildings for use for the work of local congregations of Seventh-day Adventists; (iv) to establish, conduct and provide financial assistance for schools for the education of children in which religious instruction according to the doctrines and principles of Seventh-day Adventists is given and to provide financial assistance to students pursuing education according to those doctrines and principles; (v) to publish or assist the publication of religious literature; (vi) to carry out the social mission of the gospel by the provision of humanitarian aid to those in need in any part of the world; 	2016 Constitution Article 3 The purpose has been rearranged to fit in better with UK Charity law expectations. This is following detailed professional legal advice. It has been approved by GC Legal Counsel.
